Fyi- be good if you could look these over and see if there's anything you think we missed on the pits front.

Hey Ayn – I've attached my initial comments on the palatability study. I've also attached the comments submitted to OGCC regarding the pit report as I think they are all still relevant and I don't see a need to reinvent the wheel too much.

Let me know if you have questions or concerns. Feel free to share with others as you see fit.

Thanks,

Rob
